in procureing a comfortable support and if at any time said income shall not be wanted for that purpose, the same shall from year to year be added to said principle and invested as foresaid until said fund with the accumulations thereof shall amount to Two Thousand dollars which said sum shall then constitute and remain a permanent fund; and thereafter the income of said fund of Two Thousand dollars if not needed for the relief of such poor persons may be applied to such other purposes as said Monthly Meeting may deem best adapted to promote its best interests.
